

ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES for journalists and content creators 2024

To guarantee book industry-relevant reporting, we have established the following criteria for our press accreditation.

You can receive a press accreditation by uploading a valid form of identification in our “MyBookFair” portal Frankfurter Buchmesse - Login

We will grant accreditation to the following groups of people:

1. Holders of a press pass from a well-known journalistic association that is valid for the duration of the Frankfurter Buchmesse (please use the indicated data format and upload the front and reverse side).
2. Those who can validate their (photo-)journalistic activity in German or English by presenting at least one of the following:
  - current articles that were published under their name
  - current masthead/credits in which they are personally named
  - an original copy of a written editorial assignment with reference to the next Frankfurter Buchmesse
  - current proof of activity for scholastic newspapers or youth press associations (kids under the age of 14 must be accompanied by an adult).
3. Content creators can be accredited with at least one and up to three web links to their own blog, podcast or social media channel as for example on YouTube, Instagram, X or TikTok. All of the following conditions must be met in order to qualify for accreditation:
  - the content must be relevant to the book industry and
  - the content should contain a masthead/credits containing the name of the applicant
  - the content regularly (12/year) presents entries from the current year and
  - the content should be at least 6 months old and
  - the content meets the quality standards of Frankfurter Buchmesse in terms of professional appearance, outreach, etc.

As the trade fair organiser, we reserve the right to have the final say on accreditation and to demand further verification. There exists no right to accreditation. If your application is denied, we kindly ask you to refrain from further inquiries by telephone or in written form. Because of the high number of accreditations, we will not have time to consider individual cases. It is, however, possible for you to adapt your medium/content/proof to meet our accreditation guidelines. Having done so, you can then re-apply.

Accreditation will NOT be granted based on, among others: business cards, passport photos, CVs, handwritten documents, lists of publications, activity as book author.
